

Quality movement experiences for students with disabilities include...

Autonomy

Students have independence, choice, and control in the activities.

Quality movement experiences for students with disabilities include...

Engagement

Students have opportunities to be focused, absorbed, and engaged.

Quality movement experiences for students with disabilities include...

Belongingness

Students feel included, accepted, respected, and part of the group.

Quality movement experiences for students with disabilities include...

Mastery

Students feel a sense of achievement, accomplishment, competence, and confidence.

Quality movement experiences for students with disabilities include...

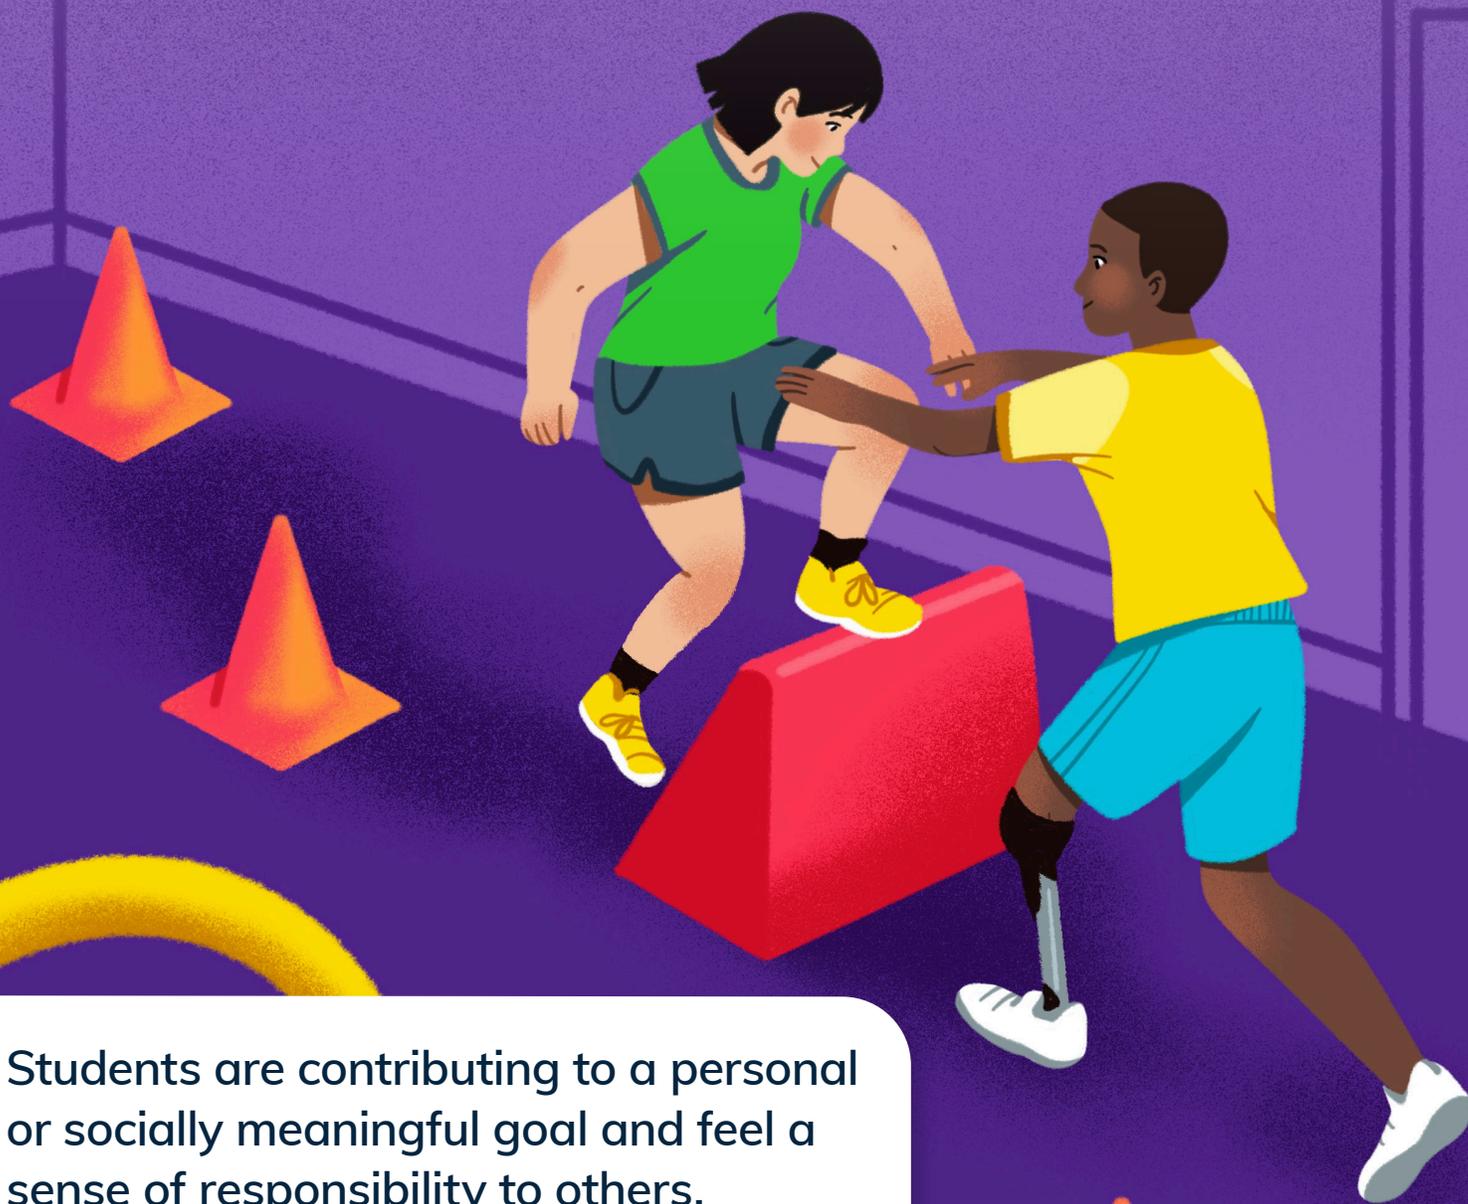

Challenge

Students feel appropriately tested.

Quality movement experiences for students with disabilities include...

Meaning

Students are contributing to a personal or socially meaningful goal and feel a sense of responsibility to others.