

Board of Directors – 2020 Call for Nominations

Provincial/Territorial representatives for:

Alberta & Northwest Territories • Manitoba & Nunavut • Québec • New Brunswick • Newfoundland & Labrador

Provincial/Territorial representatives will be elected to the Board of Directors according to Physical & Health Education Canada by-laws, and will serve a two-year term starting November 2020.

Procedure

- ❖ Any Member of the Association can nominate a candidate for election to the Board of Directors. They shall sign the nomination along with one other signature from that province/territory. The nominee must also sign the nomination with a statement of agreement to place their name on the ballot.
- ❖ No restrictions shall be placed on the Nominating Committee as to whom the nominees shall be, except that they shall be Members of the Association and shall not contravene provisions of the by-laws.
- ❖ A picture, contact information and biographical information (250 words maximum) of the nominee should accompany the nomination form. The picture and biographical information will be circulated provincially during an election process, and also posted on the PHE Canada website.
- ❖ Should there be two or more nominations submitted for a position, an election process will proceed for those nominees.
- ❖ Nomination forms must be submitted to the Physical & Health Education Canada office as soon as possible, but not later than Friday, March 13, 2020.
